The Place To Be For A Happy New Year

A warm welcome awaits you at The Brunton, so banish the winter chills and join us for some enriching, enchanting and entertaining performances and events.

We are delighted to be working in partnership with Pride Saltire for LGBT History month in February – look out for their logo next to some of our events. We also continue to programme fantastic talks in association with East Lothian Library Service. Find out more about archaeology with Alice Roberts and dinosaurs with Dr Ben Garrod. Our resident dance company Room 2 Manoeuvre produce engaging and entertaining shows. This March they perform with All Or Nothing, mixing aerial skills with dance theatre and contemporary circus, and also host Breakin Rules a fun, funny and funky mix of hip hop, dance and circus from leading UK and international artists.

Our Theatre is the place to enjoy a diverse selection of plays in the coming months, from well regarded companies including Dogstar Theatre, Mull Theatre and Blackeyed Theatre.

For the best of the West End theatre and opera, don't forget our National Theatre and Royal Opera House Live cinema screenings.

Folk music's Mike McGoldrick, John Doyle and John McCusker, well known for BBC's Transatlantic Sessions, are on the road again and they visit us in March. We also welcome the Dunedin Consort to our classical music programme, with an irresistible programme of baroque masterpieces, this April.

Add to this a fabulous line up of bands such as: Fastlove A Tribute To George Michael, The Searchers, Hamish Mcgregor Plays Ball, Barber And Bilk and The Simon & Garfunkel Story.

We love to hear your feedback. You can keep in touch by facebook or twitter or drop us an email to info@thebrunton.co.uk .

THE ELECTRIFYING MR JOHNSTON & BITE SIZE

By Robert Dawson Scott

Join us for this world premiere new play about one of Scotland's great unsung heroes - Tom Johnston. Once described by Churchill as the 'King of Scotland', the play focuses on Johnston's struggles to bring light to the glens. Through incredible feats of engineering and political manoeuvring, he sought to transform the lives of everyone in the north of Scotland by bringing hydroelectric power to the Highlands and Islands.

BITE-SIZE: informal script in hand readings of new plays and works in progress.

Readings, encounters, questions and answers, feedback and chat offer the chance to be part of the fun of the creative process.

THE TAILOR OF INVERNESS

Written and performed by Matthew Zajac and inspired by the life of his father.

The Tailor of Inverness is a story of the impact of war on ordinary people and families, a story of a boy who grew up on a farm in Galicia (Eastern Poland, now Western Ukraine) and became a tailor in Inverness, of how a life and an identity can be reconstructed. Crossing the borders from Ukraine to Poland; to Russia to Iran; to Egypt to Italy; to Germany to Scotland, this extraordinary production tells the story of the tailor's life and his son's discoveries about his father through music, poetry, imagery, storytelling and theatre.

"Matthew Zajac's moving performance is a triumph of evocative staging and storytelling." The Observer

SHERLOCK HOLMES THE SIGN OF FOUR

"When you have eliminated the impossible, whatever remains, however improbable, must be the truth"

Crammed full of adventure, romance, comedy and of course one or two rather brilliant deductions, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's The Sign of Four is brought to life in this spectacular new stage adaptation.

When Mary Morstan arrives at 221B, Baker Street to request help with the mystery of her missing father, Holmes takes the case and together with his companion Dr Watson, enters a murky world of deception and trickery, unravelling a complex plot involving murder, corruption and stolen jewels.

Original live music, stylish theatricality and magical storytelling combine for an unforgettable theatrical experience. The game's afoot!
