

THE BRUNTON: Venues in Musselburgh & Haddington

What's On Guide January – April 2024

Happy New Year!

We have a packed programme of arts and entertainment events for you at our temporary venues in Musselburgh and Haddington!

As we go to press, we do not have an update on how long we will be out of The Brunton. In March 2023 we were forced to close our performance spaces in The Brunton building due to the presence of reinforced autoclaved aerated concrete (RAAC) in the roof. Whilst we await more information regarding the next steps, we have established a successful programme at venues in Musselburgh, including Loretto School Theatre and Northesk Parish Church, and Corn Exchange in Haddington.

Highlights at Loretto Theatre in Musselburgh include midweek movies, National Theatre Live and Royal Opera House Live screenings and at Northesk Church, fabulous classical concerts for lunchtime and evenings.

We have installed new bespoke sound, lighting and stage design at the Corn Exchange, Haddington, along with comfy seats! Highlights at Corn Exchange include comedy with Craig Hill, fantastic tribute bands such as Totally Tina and Lionel – The Music of Lionel Richie and high profile events such as An Evening with Snooker Greats.

We urge you to join us at one of our new venues, to experience the same quality of arts and entertainment that you have come to expect from The Brunton.

All events can be booked online at thebrunton.co.uk.

We would love to have your feedback about our venues – please email us at info@thebrunton.co.uk

If you have any access requirements, please let our box office know by emailing boxoffice@eastlothian.gov.uk or calling 0131 653 5245, Monday – Saturday 11am – 3pm.

Best wishes

13! A New Musical

Geek. Poser. Jock. Beauty Queen. Wannabe. These are the labels that can last a lifetime. With an unforgettable rock score from Tony Award-winning composer Jason Robert Brown, 13 is a musical about fitting in - and standing out!

Evan Goldman is plucked from his fast paced, preteen New York City life and plopped into a sleepy Indiana town following his parents' divorce. Surrounded by an array of simpleminded middle school students, he needs to establish his place in the popularity pecking order. Can he situate himself on a comfortable link of the food chain or will he dangle at the end with the outcasts?!

A community show with a professional production team.

Recommended for ages 11 plus.

EVENT CINEMA SCREENINGS

NATIONAL THEATRE LIVE SCREENINGS

National Theatre Live: Dear England

A new play by James Graham, directed by Rupert Goold

Joseph Fiennes (The Handmaid's Tale) plays Gareth Southgate in James Graham's (Sherwood) gripping examination of nation and game.

The country that gave the world football has since delivered a painful pattern of loss. Why can't England's men win at their own game?

With the worst track record for penalties in the world, Gareth Southgate knows he needs to open his mind and face up to the years of hurt, to take team and country back to the promised land.

Filmed live on stage at the National Theatre, Rupert Goold (Judy) directs this spectacular new play.

National Theatre Live: Vanya

Adapted by Simon Stephens, after Anton Chekhov

Andrew Scott (Fleabag) brings multiple characters to life in Simon Stephens' (The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time) radical new version of Chekhov's Uncle Vanya.

Hopes, dreams, and regrets are thrust into sharp focus in this one-man adaptation which explores the complexities of human emotions.

Filmed live during its sold-out run in London's West End, Vanya will be playing exclusively in cinemas in 2024.

National Theatre Live: Nye

Michael Sheen plays Nye Bevan in a surreal and spectacular journey through the life and legacy of the man who transformed Britain's welfare state and created the NHS.

Confronted with death, Aneurin 'Nye' Bevan's deepest memories lead him on a mind-bending journey back through his life; from childhood to mining underground, Parliament and fights with Churchill.

Written by Tim Price and directed by Rufus Norris (Small Island), this epic new Welsh fantasia is broadcast live from the National Theatre.

ROYAL OPERA HOUSE LIVE SCREENINGS

The Royal Opera: Rusalka

Rusalka, a water spirit, lives with her family in the pure waters of the forest lake. When she falls in love with a Prince, she sacrifices her voice and leaves her home in the hope of finding true love in a new world – a world that does not love her back.

Natalie Abrahami and Ann Yee create a poetic, contemporary new staging of Dvořák's lyric fairy tale, revealing our uneasy relationship with the natural world and humanity's attempts to own and tame it. Semyon Bychkov conducts an all-star cast featuring Asmik Grigorian (Jenůfa) in the title role.

Sung in Czech with English subtitles.

Running time: 3h 45m

The Royal Ballet: Manon

Kenneth MacMillan's passionate ballet tells the story of Manon, who is torn between her desire for a life of splendour and riches and her devotion to her true love Des Grieux. This adaptation of Abbé Prévost's novel embodies Kenneth MacMillan at his best, his acute insight into human psychology and his mastery of narrative choreography finding full expression in the impassioned duets of the central couple.

The Royal Opera: Madama Butterfly

For all the beauty and romance of the music, Puccini's Madama Butterfly remains a deeply moving and troubling story, fatally bound up with the destructive forces of imperialism. Moshe Leiser and Patrice Caurier's poignant, painterly production stars Asmik Grigorian as Cio-Cio-San with Joshua Guerrero as Pinkerton.

Sung in Italian with English subtitles.

The Royal Ballet: MacMillan Celebrated

The Royal Ballet celebrates the breadth of Principal Choreographer Kenneth MacMillan's one-act ballets.

Dances Concertantes, commissioned by Ninette de Valois in 1955, was MacMillan's first major work. It is followed by Different Drummer, MacMillan's complex and haunting balletic interpretation of Woyzeck, Georg Büchner's play about a soldier's descent into madness. The mixed programme concludes with Requiem, his 1976 work for Stuttgart Ballet, created in memory of its late artistic director and MacMillan's friend John Cranko.

The Royal Ballet: Swan Lake

Out hunting, Prince Siegfried chances upon a flock of swans. One among them transforms into the beautiful human Odette and he is immediately enamoured. But Odette is bound by a spell which keeps her captive as a swan during the day. Can Siegfried free her?

Tchaikovsky's sensational score combines with the evocative imagination of choreographer Liam Scarlett and designer John Macfarlane to heighten the dramatic pathos of Marius Petipa and Lev Ivanov's quintessential ballet classic. Swan Lake remains to this day one of the best-loved works in the classical ballet canon.

NORTHESK PARISH CHURCH

North Bridge Street, Musselburgh EH21 6AG

Situated across the road from The Brunton and handy for buses, parking and The Bistro at The Brunton. The church has a lovely acoustic for classical and Trad music with an adjoining hall for interval refreshments.

SOLOISTS OF THE SCOTTISH CHAMBER ORCHESTRA

The Scottish Chamber Orchestra, is without doubt, one of the finest in the world and we are delighted to present a unique and exclusive series of fantastic recitals, given by brilliant soloists from this famous ensemble.

Recitals last 75 minutes with no interval.

The Poetic Bassoon

Cerys Ambrose-Evans, Bassoon

with Scott Mitchell, Piano

Debussy arr. Plath: Violin Sonata

Tansman: Sonatine for Bassoon

Nadia Boulanger: Three Pieces

Saint-Saëns: Bassoon Sonata

Scottish Chamber Orchestra's Principal bassoonist Cerys Ambrose-Evans has played with many of the UK's finest orchestras including the London Symphony Orchestra and the Royal Opera. Her programme includes Saint-Saëns' charming and brilliant bassoon sonata with works by Debussy, Tansman and Nadia Boulanger which will prove that the bassoon is a solo instrument every bit as rewarding as the other members of the wind section.

Wed 6 Mar 7.30pm / £16

The Lyrical Viola

Max Mandel, Viola

with Christopher Glynn, Piano

Schumann: Märchenbilder

Frank Bridge (pieces for viola and piano)

Vaughan Williams: Romance

Bruch: Romanze

Feldman: The Viola in My Life

Rebecca Clarke: Viola Sonata

Capable of spinning the most beautiful romantic musical tunes, it is a rare pleasure to hear the viola as a solo instrument. Max Mandel recently joined the SCO as principal viola, and he has chosen a programme which ranges from Schumann's imaginings of fairy tale images to music by an American viola virtuoso and from British pastoral images to the full romantic riches of Bruch's Romanze.

BITE-SIZED CONCERTS AT LUNCHTIME

Our lunchtime recitals include established and emerging, prizewinning performers with sparkling programmes of music, specially selected for you to enjoy. Relax at lunchtime in the beautiful North Esk Parish Church, Musselburgh. A light lunch of soup and a sandwich is served in the Church Hall adjacent to the church. Classical music is for everyone to enjoy, no previous knowledge is needed to enjoy our concerts. If you can't make it for lunch, you are welcome to book for the concert only.

Lunch & concert £19 / Concert only £10.75

Lunch at 12 noon / Concerts at 1pm

The Virtuoso Violin

Emma Baird, Violin

Anna Michels, Piano

Bach: Chaconne from D minor Partita

Chausson: Poème

Ysaÿe: Caprice d'après l'Étude en forme de valse

Ysaÿe was known as 'The King of the Violin' to his contemporaries and wrote numerous works to show off his spectacular musicianship. Chausson's Poème is one of the most gorgeous of all violin solos and the programme opens with one of the very greatest baroque masterpieces. Emma Baird is one of the most exciting Scottish violinists of today.

Tuesday 20 February

Guitar Masterpieces

Tim Beattie, Guitar

Works by Bach, Piazzolla and Britten

A fabulous guitarist returns with a fantastic mixture of music and styles. Piazzolla's music is all based on his native Argentina's beloved Tango. Bach's music is often full of dance rhythms and the programme's huge variety is completed by Benjamin Britten's haunting take on a theme by the renaissance genius and lutenist John Dowland.

Tuesday 19 March

Beautiful Baroque

Huw Daniel, violin

Jan Waterfield, harpsichord

Corelli: Sonata in A major for violin & continuo Opus 5 nr 9

J.S.Bach: Sonata in E major for violin & harpsichord BWV 1016

J.S.Bach: Sonata in G major for violin & continuo BWV 1021

W.F.Bach: Trio in B major for violin & harpsichord

Bach's music for violin and harpsichord is full of the energy and drive which characterise his finest music. Two of his Sonatas are framed by the past and the future represented by a sonata from his great predecessor Arcangelo Corelli and one by his eldest son William Friedmann. Performed by two brilliant baroque specialists this concert will really fizz.

Tuesday 23 April

HADDINGTON

CORN EXCHANGE
